BAE Systems is hosting a free workshop to introduce new capabilities available in the Geospatial eXploitation Products™ (GXP®) product line, including SOCET GXP® and GXP Xplorer™. The day is divided into two identical sessions. Workstations will be available for attendees to meet one-on-one with GXP product experts and focus on individual issues.

Topics include:

- Introduction to SOCET GXP v3.1.1
- SOCET GXP v3.1.1 for the image analyst (IA)
- SOCET GXP v3.1.1 for the geospatial analyst (GA)
- ArcGIS® connectivity
- Preview of SOCET GXP v3.2 with Q&A
- GXP Xplorer™ v1.0 and what's coming in v2.0
